

Joey & Allison

Hello!

We are so humbled you have chosen to explore our profile. We cannot begin to imagine how difficult this is for you as you navigate the best decision for your child. We have been, and are continuing to pray for you on your journey. You and your child are loved beyond what you can even begin to imagine.

The adoption journey is one we are honored to get to step into and is something we take seriously, as we know you do as well. Our hope is that this book will offer a glimpse into who we are as a couple, as individuals, and the things we value the most. We strongly desire to welcome a child to our family and are so ready to love a child from any background or ethnicity. Thank you for taking the time to get to know us. We are praying for the Lord's guidance for you and your child.

Love,
Joey and Allison

We have so much fun together and love to explore new places.
We can't wait to bring our future children on our adventures!

A LITTLE About us

We are a pretty good example of how “opposites attract.” Allison is a very detail-oriented, systems-first, rule-follower type of gal... whereas Joey is more of the story-teller, creative-minded, how-can-we-keep-things-fun-and-fresh type of person. Joey desperately needs Allison’s stability and forward-thinking, and she needs his spontaneity to help keep things care-free.

We met at our church and got married 11 months later. We have been married for almost 9 years and love spending time together and exploring new places. We make each other laugh on a daily basis. We treat one another with love and kindness, and make it a priority to forgive one another often. We are truly each other’s biggest cheerleaders and love seeing each other flourish and grow.

We are not perfect, and our marriage isn’t perfect. But what we are is committed to one another. If we were to be given the blessing and privilege to adopt your child, our life’s aim would be to extend that same commitment to him or her, and to build a family that never stops choosing to love each other.

WHY Adoption?

Ever since we started our relationship, we have dreamed of building a family together. We grew up in wonderful, loving homes and want to bless a child with that same experience. Allison's medical history has led multiple doctors to advise against pregnancy due to the potential health risks that her and a baby might endure if we were to get pregnant. Through many conversations together and through prayer with God, we strongly believe He is leading us to pursue adoption.

We would love to welcome a child of any race, ethnicity, or background into our hearts and home. This child would be so incredibly loved, cared for, and welcomed by our entire family. We are ready to grow our family through adoption and pour our time, energy, and love into a child.

OCCUPATION: Worship Pastor

HOBBIES: Fantasy Football, Settlers of Catan, golfing, writing songs, playing piano.

FAVORTIE FOOD: Tacos

FAVORITE TV SHOW: The Chosen, Breaking Bad, Dexter, Stranger Things, Friends

WHY ALLISON LOVES JOEY: Joey is just the best! I know that's biased, but I speak the truth. He is the most genuine person I know and intentionally shows love and care to those around him. He wants others to feel heard and will take the time to truly listen to what is being shared so he can offer thoughtful feedback. He is a deep thinker and always points me back to the Lord. He also just has the best sense of humor and makes me laugh every day!

MEET Allison

OCCUPATION: Family Ministries and Spiritual Formation Pastor

HOBBIES: reading, going on walks, organizing, embroidery

FAVORITE FOOD: Pot Roast

FAVORITE TV SHOW: Gilmore Girls, Dexter, Parks and Rec, Stranger Things

WHY JOEY LOVES ALLISON: Alli is my best friend. God has blessed me beyond comprehension to have given me a wife who is so humble and God-honoring. She has a deep desire to “do what is right” even when it costs her very own comfort. Most people tend to gravitate away from “doing what is right” because it typically always costs you something in order to choose it. But she shows me every day that she is willing to sacrifice in order to love me well and love others well. I thank God every day that He saw fit to give me the gift of my wife Allison.

OUR Home

We love our home and our neighborhood! We believe it will be such a wonderful place to raise a family. Our neighborhood is quiet and safe and is full of other growing families. We live very close to Joey's oldest brother and mom, so we have many opportunities to spend time with family. We cannot wait to bring more laughter and love into our home!

Our family room is the heart of our home. We love to host our small group and provide a comfortable setting for people to relax. We are looking forward to the days of building forts, watching family movies, and toys scattering the floor!

Our prayer is for this room and our other spare room to serve as a safe and loving place for our future children. We are excited to snuggle in for bedtime stories and lots of laughs!

Joey is the chef in our family. We can't wait to have little helpers to cook dinner. We are looking forward to creating countless memories of baking cookies, carving pumpkins, and passing down family recipes!

We are excited for the memories to be created around this table! Memories of meals shared, telling about our days, doing puzzles and art projects, and yes... even homework! 😊

Joey's Family

Joey's mom, Lynne, is truly the matriarch of the family. She is warm and loving and always points each one of us back to the Lord on a daily basis. His father, Jim, passed away in 2015. He also had a fierce love for God that he helped to instill in each of the boys. The brothers help keep his memory alive through lots of hilarious stories and anecdotes.

Joey's oldest brother, Jim, is married to Heather. They have three beautiful children named Fairah (12), James (7), and Fiona (6).

His middle brother, John, is engaged to Haley, and they are getting ready for their wedding in 2026. They live in Los Angeles.

We live 10 minutes from Joey's mom and oldest brother, so we get to see and spend time with them on an almost weekly basis. "Uncle Joey" helps coach James' basketball team and "Aunt Alli" is one of Fiona's favorite people. We love going to watch movies, playing arcade games at Dave and Busters, and learning new family games together! Grandma Lynne blesses us with a family vacation to a new place every year, and we love getting to make memories together on those trips.

Everyone is so excited about adding a child to the family, and Fairah, James, and Fiona cannot wait to love on their new cousin!

Allison's Family

Allison's parents, Dave and Robbin, just celebrated an incredible 40 years of marriage. One of our hopes and dreams for our marriage together is to one day have the longevity of love and sacrifice that her mom and dad have demonstrated to us.

Allison's sister, Abby, is married to Joe, and together they have an amazing little boy named Jack (2) and are expecting baby Kathleen this spring.

Her brother, Zach, is married to Abby (yes, a different Abby), and together they have two beautiful little girls named Penelope (3) and Ivy (1).

We live a couple of hours away from Allison's family, but make the most of our time together through playing games, lots of time on the floor playing with our nieces and nephew, riding around in Grandpa Dave's golf cart, going on family vacations (especially to Disney World), and hours on the swing set!

The whole family is ready to add another little one to the bunch to join in on the hours of fun and laughter!

OUR Promise

If you should choose to move forward with us as adoptive parents to your child, we promise to love him or her unconditionally in a home filled with love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

We promise to help instill strong morals and values and teach him or her to live life with humility and genuine care for others.

We will do our very best to infuse fun and laughter into our everyday lives with some of our favorite things from our own childhoods: playing games, baking sweet treats, watching movies, going on adventures outside, learning to play/create music, playing all kinds of sports, and making art projects come to life!

Most importantly, we promise to always tell them their story, teach them about their culture and background, and help them feel heard, known, and loved.

Thank you so much for taking the time to get to know us! We know this is a decision that is not to be taken lightly, and we are so grateful for this opportunity to be considered to give our love to your child.
