

ANDY

ANDREW

WE ARE ANDY (LEFT) AND ANDREW (RIGHT)
WE'VE BEEN TOGETHER 12 YEARS,
AND MARRIED FOR 6 YEARS.

Starting a family has always been our dream.

We cannot wait to add a child to our current family of two.

- Andy works in human resources
- Enjoys playing piano
- Cuddling with the cats
- Hanging out on the lake

- Andy can't wait to:
- teach our child the IU fight song
 - read with him or her every night
 - encourage their creativity

Andy & His Mom

- Andrew works in IT auditing
- Loves to read
- Catch a good movie
- Enjoy all things music

- Andrew is excited to share with our child:
- Experience of playing an instrument
 - Enjoyment of the great outdoors
 - Experiencing other cultures

Landscaping is a family event every year.

Andy's parents usually come down to help us plant new flowers and start off the spring season.

Both of us can't wait to teach our child about sports and how to play.

Either the front or the back yard have ample room.

Our neighborhood is right off a biking and walking trail.

We can't wait to take our child on bike rides and walks year round.

Our child will be able to use the neighborhood playground.

Many of the kids in the surrounding homes hang out here.

Jordy (no white) and Jack (white belly) cannot wait to welcome their little brother or sister home.

WE PROMISE TO:

Love our child unconditionally.

Foster an environment where our child will feel safe, loved, and provided the opportunity to express who they are.

Encourage and promote lifelong education.

Cultivate a curiosity of cultures and experiences.
