

Kelly & Colin

HI THERE

We are so excited at the thought of meeting you and your baby. This whole journey has led us to this point and we can't thank you enough for taking a look at our story. We hope this gives you a glimpse of who we are and the life we share together.

We met in the fall of 2009 while working at Best Buy. We bonded over our love of music and share the same sense of humor. October 24th, 2015 we got married and since then we have enjoyed every moment together. Whether it's going to a baseball game, a concert, or just playing games at home; we value the time spent together. Although we are opposites in many ways, we have always maintained a respect and understanding of our unique qualities. We truly are best friends.

OUR PATH TO ADOPTION

We've often said, "it doesn't matter how we become parents, just as long as it's together." We have always known there would be obstacles when trying to conceive. After a few years of appointments and tests, we can close the door on our infertility journey, and open a new one as proud adoptive parents.

OUR PROMISES TO YOU

- Always listen and validate their feelings.
- Nurture and support them in activities, interests, and education.
- Ensure they always feel safe and protected.
- Keep them smiling and laughing.
- Fulfill any wishes you have for them in life.
