Hello

First off, we want to thank you for taking the time to look through our book, and to consider our family. We want you to know your child will be loved unconditionally. We will love your child in the same way that we love our son. We promise to devote our lives to providing your child with love, support, security, and happiness. Throughout this book we hope that you will see the love we have for each other, our family and our future child.

We also want you to know that we think you are so brave and courageous for considering adoption for your baby. We believe that adoption is an honorable and selfless act of love for a child. We wish you and your child all the best in the world.

Sincerely,
Aaron, Erin, and Anders

About Us

We met on Match.com in 2014 and have been married since July 9, 2016. Everyone finds it funny that we have the same name. Thankfully the spelling is different. We often go by A-Aaron and E-Erin or boy-Aaron and girl-Erin. We are thankful that our son just calls us mom and dad, and we can't wait for our future child to be able to call us that as well.

We live in Indianapolis. We love to travel and visit family and friends. We enjoy being outdoors and going for walks. We love the sunshine. We like to workout. We enjoy watching sports especially IU basketball and Chicago Cubs baseball. We enjoy eating pizza, sushi, ice cream and cookies. We like to cookout. We love our family, and we are excited to expand our hearts and home with another child.

We value God, family, joy, honesty, kindness, adventure, teamwork, compassion, responsibility, and hard work.

A little about Aaron

Written by Erin

Aaron is a wonderful dad, and he is very excited about adding another child to the family. Aaron is hardworking and dedicated. He owns his own business and gets to work from home. He is thoughtful and caring. He loves the Lord and his family. He loves to play with our son, Anders. They love to get wild in the bounce house and play chase in the yard. They share a passion for Saturday morning donuts and making momma feel special.

A little about Erin Written by Aaron

Erin is an amazing mom who loves every minute she gets to spend with Anders. She loves to take him to the zoo and Children's Museum on her days off. She is always reading to him and teaching him new things. Erin's work schedule allows her long stretches of days off in between shifts to be able to spend time with her family. She is an ER doctor who has dedicated her life to helping those in her community. She is a great example of a godly mother and wife, and she can't wait to share her love with another precious child.

About Our Son

Anders (3)

He is a fun loving boy who loves to make people laugh. He is constantly making funny faces. He loves riding his bike, playing with his cousins and friends, swimming, visiting his Opa & Dee Dee & Grammie, playing with dinosaurs, getting bedtime stories and snuggles from mom and dad, Toy Story, light up shoes, fruit, donuts, Spiderman, stuffed animals, temporary tattoos, and coloring. He tells us often that he wants a little brother or sister too.

Our Home

We live in a 4 bedroom house with a large fenced in back yard in Indianapolis. Our neighborhood is very friendly, and kids are always playing outside. Our house is located at the end of the cul-de-sac. Our swing set is set up and ready for new adventures. Our nursery is ready for a new baby too.

Our Community & Friends

We live in a great area with all kinds of fun things to do. Our neighborhood has a small pond that we enjoy walking to and throwing rocks into. There are walking trails near us. We have great neighbors that we hang out with frequently. There are always kids playing ball in the cul-de-sac. We are members of the YMCA and we enjoy the pools there. We love to go to the local parks and play on the playground. We go to the zoo and the children's museum often as well. We go to a Presbyterian church on Sunday mornings and then go to brunch after.

Erin's Family

Erin has a close knit family that gets together often. Erin's parents (Opa and Dee Dee) live in a small town in Illinois, but visit often. They love being grandparents and spoiling the grandkids. They are very exciting about having another grandchild to love and spoil. Erin's sister (Aunt Elyse) lives with her husband and 3 girls (cousins ages 6, 3, and 9 mo.) in Cincinnati. Erin's brother (Uncle Stevie) lives in Colorado with his wife and brand new baby girl. Erin's family loves to get together as often as possible and loves to travel.

Thank you so much for taking the time to read through our book and learn about our family. We want you to know that we will love your child without fail for our entire lives. We will do everything in our power to help him or her lead the best life possible. We will work to help him or her achieve all his or her goals. We will be open and honest with your child. We want you to know that you will always play an important role in his or her life. Your child will know where he or she came from and understand and appreciate the love and sacrifices you made for him or her. We understand that raising a child takes a village, and you will always be part of that village in some way. Your child will always know and understand your love as well as the love from us, our family, friends, church and community.
